Congregational Church Notes.

There will be no preaching next Sunday morning.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church has received from Miss Ann Jones, Mrs. Jennie Jones, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. R. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Locke, a generous gift, consisting of dining table, chairs and sideboard to be used at the parsonage. The society and those who are to occupy the parsonage are grateful and appreciative of the gift.

About thirty children of the Sunday School had the pleasure of an auto ride Tuesday to Willoughby Lake. This ride was a reward for perfect attendance in Sunday school for three months unless some good reason excused them. Seven autos were generously loaned for the occasion.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Excellent congregations Sunday, both morning and evening.

There is much interest in the Bible school.

The duet by Madams Bartlett and Dickens was enjoyed. The leader of the choir, Foster J. Kinney, was missed.

The pastor preached at Irasburg in the evening. Mrs. G. W. Burke took the service. The pastor will preach both morning and evening next Sabbath. Subject of morning sermon, "Obligations of Wedded Life." All interested in this vital subject are cordially invited. Good music. Evening service bright and helpful.

The Bible School at 12 m. Topic, "The Work of the Kingdom."

The Rev. Ralph Lowe will be present this evening and speak on the General Conference and also hold the first quarterly conference. All are cordially invited.

TAX NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the taxpayers of the village of Orleans and the Orleans Graded School district, that the tax bills on the grand list of 1912 are in my hands for collection. I will attend at the office of the Central Savings Bank & Trust Co., between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. A discount of 4 per cent will be allowed on all taxes paid within 90 days from date hereof, after which date all taxes remaining unpaid will be placed in the hands of the collector to be collected by process of law with additional costs. Said 90 days will expire Oct. 17, 1912. Dated at Orleans, Vt., this 19th day of July, 1912.

R. A. BEAN, Treasurer.

Mrs. F. J. Kinney has returned from South Troy, where she had been spending several days.

Prof. Oscar Gibb and family from Antrim, N. H., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Gibb.

Vera Bullard, who has been very ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, remains about the same.

Misses Minnie Stannard and Theda Wellman have returned from their outing spent in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Mrs. I. P. Chase and her mother, Mrs. Turnbull, came to J. G. Turnbull's last week. Mrs. Turnbull will remain here a while.

Mrs. Frank Hardy, who has been visiting in North Troy, returned this week, bringing her mother, Mrs. Louisa Jenks, with her.

Rev. C. L. Smith of Fitch Bay, Que., spent several days last week with his brother, B. O. Smith, and his sister, Mrs. Arah Wilcox.

Geo. Moore, who came from Waterbury last week, has moved his family to Athol, Mass., where he expects to work the coming winter.

Mrs. Geo. Twombly, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Martha Greene of Boston, and Misses Stella and Hazel Twombly, went to Montreal for a few days last week.

Mrs. R. H. Jenness of Dorchester, Mass., and Mrs. L. C. Lamphear of New York, who have been at Dr. F. L. Lamphear's, have returned to their respective homes.

A cellar is being built for an addition to the planing mill at the E. L. Chandler Company sounding board factory. The addition will be 36 by 72 feet and will contain band saw, edger and carriers for conveying the lumber by power.

Miss Mabel Farrington, who has been spending the past three months with her father, W. A. Farrington, has returned to Springfield, Mass. Miss Farrington came here hoping to recover her health but found the climate was not beneficial.

Sunday Raymond Preston, son of E. C. Preston, living on Irasburg street, received an injury to the eye which came near resulting in the loss of its sight. The boy was taken to the hospital at St. Johnsbury and it is hoped that his eye will wholly recover from the injury.

Karl S. Webster, D. M. D., who received word last week that he satisfactorily passed the Vermont State Board examinations, has been in Boston to purchase the necessary apparatus for his office. Dr. Webster expects to locate in Orleans. We are glad he has chosen to come back to his home town and we wish him every success in his profession.

The entertainment at the opera hall last evening by Miss Marion Wilson drew a good audience. Miss Wilson's character studies were unique and amusing and her costumes and skillful makeup added greatly to the reality of the representations. The various musical numbers by local talent were pleasing and well applauded. The ladies having this in charge realized a good amount financially.

Lucius Lund broke his ankle as a result of an accident Monday caused by his horse taking fright at sight of an automobile. The animal had been considered unafraid of autos but began to run on seeing one round a corner. Mr. Lund, endeavoring to stop the runaway, jumped from the carriage and in so doing suffered a severe fracture of the ankle. No blame was given the driver of the automobile.

Harry K. Thaw Still Insane.

White Plains, N. Y., July 28.—Harry K. Thaw, in the eyes of the law, is still insane and must remain in the asylum where he was placed on Feb. 1, 1908, after he had killed Stanford White. Justice Martin J. Keogh of the supreme court denied Thaw's application for freedom.

This is the third attempt made by Harry K. Thaw to gain his liberty from Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane on a writ of habeas corpus. The sole question tried before Justice Keogh, without a jury, was whether Thaw is now sane. Justice Keogh said:

"Having listened to all the testimony, I am of the opinion that Harry K. Thaw is still insane and that his discharge would be dangerous to the public peace and safety."

Thaw was plainly disappointed, but it is stated that the Pittsburgher really lost heart after the testimony of Dr. J. W. Russell, superintendent of the Matteawan insane asylum. Dr. Russell testified that, in his opinion, Thaw might commit another murder if set at liberty.
